

These rule changes will reduce employment and add to the control of all media by conservative corporations interested in breaking unions and destroying democracy. Another move by the Bush Republicans to take from almost everybody and give to a few.